

I want my airwaves free of attempts to influence the outcomes of elections by the use of promgramming slanted to favor one candidates or another. The Sinclair broadcasting ill-advised plan is just such a situation. Further it is giving a black eye to media consolidation, which already was suspect in my book. I expect you all to do something to recitfiy the situation.